1. This case was received by the Inspection and Review Staff from the Security Office on 22 March 1955, who noted that the problem was of primary concern to this Staff.

2. The Chief of Station at [redacted] reports that upon assuming this post in April 1954 he counted the reserve funds in the presence of the departing Chief and found them to be accurate. Since that time, his Boss has made quarterly financial reports to Mission Headquarters, including--he believed--a cash count. It now appears that only the current funds were counted for these quarterly reports and the reserve funds were simply examined as to their presence and an exact count was not made.

6. Employees available at [redacted] were questioned without satisfactorily resolving the loss. The Security Officers then referred the case to Headquarters for further questioning and technical interviews, if necessary, of the personnel who had departed.

7. Accordingly, this Staff is requesting the Security Office to conduct these interviews and inform us of the results if the employee concerned is a member of any of the DD/P's units. This case will remain open in our files until further information is received from the Director of Security; and you will be advised immediately of any information developed.
